

The Book of Milton Hoyt

Milton Hoyt Satterwhite was born in Roanoke, Alabama in Randolph County on June 6, 1919

Sarah Marchia Webb Satterwhite future wife of Milton Hoyt was born in Alabama in Randolph County on January 20, 1924

Milton Hoyt married Sarah Marchia Webb Satterwhite in Wedowee, Alabama in Randolph County on February 4, 1942

Milton Hoyt and Sarah Marchia Webb Satterwhite had their first child Milton Hoyt Satterwhite Junior on February 11, 1943

Milton Hoyt and Sarah Marchia Webb Satterwhite had their second child Joan Ann Satterwhite on April 25, 1945

Milton Hoyt and Sarah Marchia Webb Satterwhite had their third child Kathy Lynn Satterwhite Horsley on October 16, 1951

Milton Hoyt and Sarah Marchia Webb Satterwhite had their fourth child Perry Alan Satterwhite on April 5, 1954

Milton Hoyt enlisted in the United States Army for World War Two at Fort McClellan in Alabama on October 28, 1942

William Francis father of Milton Hoyt died in Opelika, Alabama in Lee County on December 15, 1962

Pattye Arkatie Clegg Satterwhite mother of Milton Hoyt died in Lafayette, Alabama in Randolph County on June 8, 1983

Pattye Arkatie Clegg Satterwhite was buried in Roanoke, Alabama in Randolph County at Cedarwood Cemetery shortly after her death

Please See Pattye Arkatie Clegg Satterwhite

Photo by: Phobie and Norman Satterwhite

Milton Hoyt died in Opelika, Alabama in Lee County on December 8, 2000

Milton Hoyt was buried in Wedowee, Alabama in Randolph County at Wedowee Masonic Cemetery shortly after his death

Photo by: Phobie and Norman Satterwhite

Sarah Marchia Webb Satterwhite wife of Milton Hoyt died on January 16, 2001

Sarah Marchia Webb Satterwhite was buried in Wedowee, Alabama in Randolph County at Wedowee Masonic Cemetery shortly after her death

Kathy Lynn Satterwhite Horsley daughter of Milton Hoyt died in Carrollton, Georgia in Carrollton County on July 19, 2013

Kathy Lynn Satterwhite Horsley was buried in Wedowee, Alabama in Randolph County at Wedowee Masonic Cemetery shortly after her death